*Larry Delmas
Wheeler*

*February 16, 1948
August 13, 1993*

Larry with his wife, Shirley.

Larry with his children, Samantha, Maggie, Dee and Jon.

Larry Delmas Wheeler, the son of John and Ruth Wheeler, was born on February 16, 1948. He was one of eight children (4 brothers and 4 sisters) in his family. Larry attended schools in Buena Vista and served in the Army for 3 years. His service duty involved bridge building with the 16th Engineering Battalion in Vietnam. Larry returned home in April, 1970 after being wounded. In December, 1970, he married Shirley Reid and they raised their four children; Samantha, Jon, Maggie and Dee. Larry worked at Hermetite for 14 years and for the United States Postal Service for 8 years. An avid Fighting Blues and Redskins fan, Larry loved sports and coached in the Buena Vista Little League program. Larry enjoyed writing poetry and playing his guitar.

DRAW CLOSE TO JESUS by Larry Delmas Wheeler

"Just when I thought that I needed nothing,
I could do everything right on my own,
My high horse slipped,
And I didn't fall easy.
Darkness was upon me, and I was alone.

CHORUS:
He will let you down easy
He will pick you up strong.
He will keep you from trouble -
Just tell Him what's wrong.
DRAW CLOSE TO JESUS, and
He'll draw close to you.
Ask things in His name, and they will come true."

This message is one of four verses written by Larry Delmas Wheeler and was shared with us at his funeral.

MESSAGE FROM DAD

"I wish you a Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year,
Because you and the way you are is what keeps my heart in gear.
I want you to know I'm proud of all the things you do,
and I hope your son is cloned exactly like you,
Because when I look at you it reminds me much of me,
Because you are all the things I always wanted to be."

Written by Larry to his son, Jon

On The Theme . . .

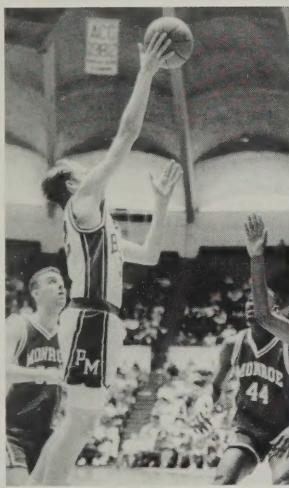

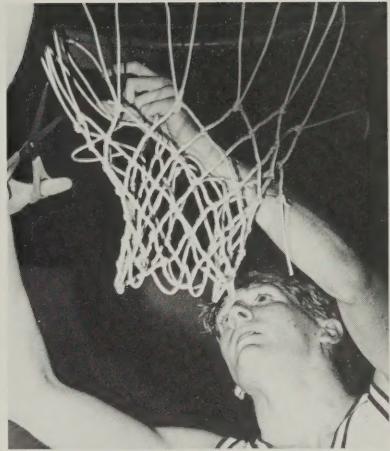

As in the past, this year's theme was chosen with a lot of thought and TLC. Also, the student body helped by voting on their favorite theme. The results were that all of you felt the same as we, the yearbook staff, did. As the song says, "Times they are a-changin'," and you wanted a book that would accurately reflect this.

Changes occurred everywhere. The seniors weren't the only ones who were going through "final" events. In education, this was the last year of the traditional quarter system, as block scheduling begins in '94-'95. Several teachers either retired or moved on to bigger and brighter things. Mrs. Mary Page Stinnett, Mrs. Mary Jane Mutispaugh, Mrs. Sally Carter, Mrs. Martha Hawkins, and Dr. Raymond Bodley will all be missed when they are gone. In sports, Stephanie Rhodes scored her 1000th point in girls' basketball, the boys' basketball team went to the state level for the first time in over thirty years, and a sophomore, Melanie Wexel, placed second in the state in girls' tennis.

Not only did PMHS go through several memorable events, the entire city of Buena Vista went through a time of change and reconstruction. The B.V. beautification committee, with some help from our own landscaping committee, "touched up" several sites. Another event was the groundbreaking for the long-awaited flood wall project. This was not only memorable for Buena Vista, but for the nation as well, as it was the last federally-funded project of its kind.

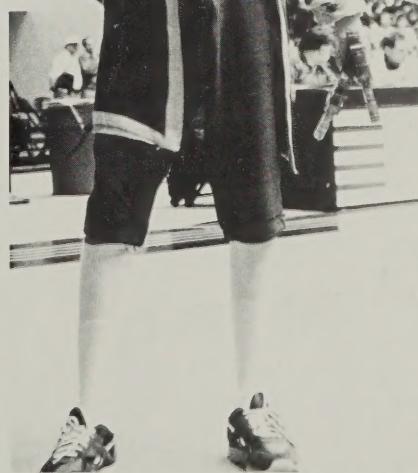

As you can see, at the risk of sounding eerily like our parents, the school and city we live in will not be the same for future generations of Fighting Blues. When you flip through this book, know that while the pictures and words are just happy reminders at this time, in the future they will trigger fond memories of "days gone by" to be cherished forever. Now sit back and enjoy your walk through the past! To make your trip even more memorable, we threw in some flashback pictures of our own. Pay close attention, you never know whose face will pop up next!

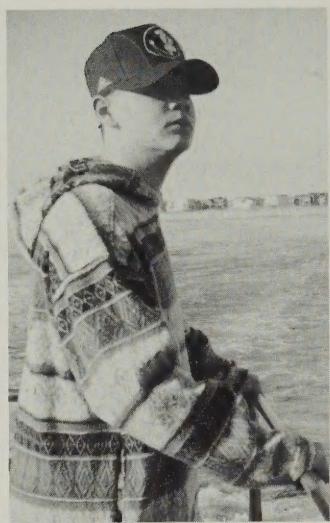

The Days Gone By

“O the days gone by! O the days gone by!
The apples in the orchard, and the pathway through the rye;
The chirrup of the robin, and the whistle of the quail
As he piped across the meadows sweet as any nightingale;
When the bloom was on the clover, and the blue was in the sky,
And my happy heart brimmed over, in the days gone by.”

In the days gone by, when my naked feet were tripped
By the honeysuckle tangles where the water-lilies dipped,
And the ripples of the river lipped
the moss along the brink
Where the placid-eyed and lazy-footed cattle came to drink,
And the tilting snipe stood fearless of the truant's wayward cry
And the splashing of the swimmer, in the days gone by.

“O the days gone by! O the days gone by!
The music of the laughing lip, the
luster of the eye;
The childish faith in fairies, and
Aladdin’s magic ring--
The simple, soul-reposing, glad belief in every thing,--
When life was like a story holding neither sob nor sigh,
In the golden olden glory of the
days gone by.”

Mayor Billy Gibson and Debbie Garrett attend grand opening of Cinema One (Valley Cinema).

The '93-'94 City Council members shared the responsibilities and burdens of managing the various branches of city government. The major concerns this year included city budget/salaries, taxes, council elections, school board appointments, new industry/ businesses, city improvements and flood control. Highlighting 1994 was the Floodwall Dedication at Glen Maury.

This sign was one of many that greeted students as they walked down the senior hall during spirit week. "Hear us scream, hear us roar . . ." took on new meaning to the class as they finally claimed seniority.

“My senior year . . . finally! It feels like it has taken forever. A lot has changed for me this year. I have matured very much. When you become a senior you find many more responsibilities that have to be taken care of quickly. As a senior, there is more stress placed upon your shoulders. I have found that finding that ‘special someone’ can help a great deal.”

As usual, the long hard season began in early August, with practices held twice a day for about two hours each. Coach Williams said, "We had a successful year having lost 2 close games that were led by us, but we pulled off two last minute games against Rockbridge and Radford." He was pleased to win the district after a two year drought from the title.

The biggest disappointment was player turnout, which was the lowest in Coach Williams 20 years coaching. Another disappointment: we were knocked out of the playoffs in the first round. Rural Retreat was the final game for seniors Joey Bates, Kris Camden, Kris Carter, Craig Floyd, Clay Garrett, Joey Grow, Dale Ingram, Jeremy Jones, Kevin Mikels, T. Ramsey, J.D. Wheeler, Jon Wheeler, and Shaam Wheeler.

The 1993 j.v. football team was young and inexperienced. A lot of eighth graders were starting at positions they had never played. The coaching staff had to use inexperienced players in various positions because of injuries. The j.v. record was 1 - 7.

Coach Craft said this year was discouraging. The j.v. team started out with twenty-nine players and finished with eighteen players. He didn't like people signing up to play football and then not showing that "Fighting Blue Spirit."

New Leadership

Competitive District Is Nothing New

This year's team was under the new leadership of Coach Fred Horeis. Coach Horeis came from James River, where he coached boys' basketball. This year was his first time coaching girls' basketball.

The season started off well with a home victory against the Wildcats of Rockbridge County High School. The highlight of the year was beating the James River Knights, a team the Lady Blues had not defeated in four years.

Overall, the season had its ups and downs, but the Lady Blues finished with a 10-10 record. Had they received a few more calls from the men in black and white, the Lady Blues would have had a much better season.

PARRY McCLUER HARRIERS

The 1993 Cross Country team started the season with one goal in mind æto win the district championshipÆ!! The Harriers accomplished this when they defeated Bath County by one point on the Blues' home course.

Coach Evans said, "I felt happy for the fellows, they deserved to win." Coach Preston Evans was gratified to set a goal and accomplish it. "Having a home field advantage was a major factor because we knew the course well and had been practicing on it. It is one of the toughest courses in the district", says Coach Evans.

One thing the Harriers had lacked in past years was support. It all changed during the '93 season. The Harriers had support throughout the season from their parents and friends. The Harriers enjoyed having this support and would like to encourage support to future Harrier teams.

As a team, the Harriers included three seniors, one sophomore, two freshmen and one eighth grader to complete their season. Coach Evans enjoyed working with these young men and was very proud of them. The three young men finishing their senior year on the Cross Country team were Greg Cash, Chris Gibson and Mike Kerr.

"This has been our best year for a long time. It was exciting winning the district." -Greg Cash

"The '93 year was our best year ever for the PMHS Cross Country team. I hope the success from this year can be carried to the next year. Although there will be a lack of leadership, they will still be good." -Chris Gibson

"I think this year has been a great year for PM Cross Country. It has been great to work with Coach Evans." -Mike Kerr

We're 1!!

The '93-'94 Fighting Blues' basketball team had an excellent season with an overall record of 24-3. Led by four seniors, Kris Carter, Nathan Baker, Jon Wheeler, and Craig Floyd, the BLUES had a healthy balance in leadership, sportsmanship and unselfish play. "This team was a good team to work with and no one expected them to go this far." [Coach Nelson Fox] Advancing to the State Championship far exceeded the goals set for this season. The last Fighting Blues' boys' team to go this far was 31 years ago. Along with being State Runner-Up, the Fighting Blues received the Marshall Johnson State Sportsmanship Award.

Mike Ramsey, Tommy Coleman, Clay Garrett, and Courtney Dickinson were some of the strong field competitors in discus and shot.

“We had a great turnout for boys track this year. The numbers almost doubled from last year. It was nice just to be able to fill all the events, we placed 5th at Districts and 5th at Regionals. We took five athletes to State and competed in five events. We're only losing two seniors and looking forward to a great season next year.” -Coach Ross Bleech

Jason Wilmore, Cersha Marshburn, and D. J. Douglas are just a few of our strong hurdlers. D. J. went on to Districts, Regionals, and to State.

“Track is a very “individual” sport which puts a lot of pressure on the athlete. One must have a sincere desire to succeed and have a great deal of self-motivation. Many of our girls found that “drive” and achieved a great personal success during the season.” Coach Frazier.

“We had a tremendous turnout for girls track this year, 27 girls came out and 21 stuck with it. Each girl made a positive contribution to the team. It was a good building year for girls track. Many of the girls found areas or events they were very good at- an encouragement to come out again next year.”

Brooke Seaman, feature majorette - "Since 8th grade, band has given me the opportunity to visit new places and do new things. The Florida trip was my last band trip and it was a lot of fun. I will miss twirling for the Marching Blues next year."

Rachel McCallister, guard - "Band has given me many opportunities and has forced me to be more responsible. Florida was the highlight of my senior year. My last year of marching is overflowing with precious memories that will last forever!"

Becky Bowyer, guard - "My senior year in band proved to be a unique experience. I met new friends and was able to spend time with my friends in different environments. Our trip to Florida allowed me to get away from the pressure of being a Senior!"

April Chittum, flute, cymbals - "Band has given me many opportunities that I might otherwise never have been given. Florida was fun, but it was even better because it was my senior year. I will never forget my 'experiences' in band as long as I live!"

The Marching Blues had a busy, but successful, year. Between football games, we competed at William Campbell (excellent rating, 1st rifles), the Powhatan Evening Classic (1st percussion, 3rd overall AA band), and Greenbriar East (1st feature twirler, 2nd guard, 3rd majorettes, 1st rifles). Also, Brooke Seaman was selected to perform during the Florida Citrus Bowl halftime show.

After a short break, preparation for Florida began. On May 13, after a grueling overnight trip, we were greeted by a bright, sunny morning. After visiting Kennedy Space Center, we practiced and went to Cocoa Beach. On Saturday, we arrived at West Orange High School for competition at 9 a.m. The heat in a band uniform was so intense that several students became sick. After competition, we headed to Universal Studios, where the awards presentation was held at 6. After being entertained by the "Blues Brothers", the Marching Blues were awarded 1st A marching, 2nd A concert, and Outstanding Rifles. On Sunday, we visited Epcot Center, and on Monday, we headed to Magic Kingdom in our "Phantom" shirts. On our last day, we went to Sea World. All of the sea life made a big splash on the guests! A surprise storm at the end of the day answered our pleas to cool off in an unexpected way. We left around six and started the long ride home. Cheers of joy exploded at the sight of the Buena Vista exit sign. Although we all enjoyed the trip, most agreed: "There's no place like home!"

Spanish Club

El Club Español

This year the Spanish Club went on many trips that highlighted Spanish culture. In the fall the group attended a performance of Flamenco dancing in Harrisonburg. In the spring the group attended a play performed in both Spanish and English, in Roanoke.

The highlight of the year was the trip to Mexico. On March 29, 1994, six members, chaperoned by Señor Ron Gravatt, headed off on an exciting and memorable trip to Mexico.

The group traveled from Washington National Airport to Houston Texas for a short stopover. The group arrived in Mexico City where they visited the Main Square, the Royal Palace, the Museum of Anthropology, the remains of the temples of Tenochtitlan, the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon.

After visiting Mexico City the group traveled to Taxco, a city known for its silver. While there they visited the Church of Santa Prisca, where they were able to hear Good Friday Mass.

The most memorable part of the trip was the three days spent in Acapulco. Among the places visited were the Hard Rock Cafe and the beach. Sadly after eight days in paradise the students had to return home.

Musical Endeavors

Band and chorus students get rid of their "pre-concert jitters" while waiting for the concert to begin at Enderly Heights Elementary School.

The PMHS concert band and chorus worked together several times this year, but none were as public as the annual Christmas concerts. These groups make an effort every year to perform for the public, and then at the two elementary schools. All three concerts went very well. It was made particularly enjoyable, because they were doing something the children look forward to and love.

In February, Amy Griffin was recognized for her vocal abilities when she received the Bland Scholarship from the Lions Club.

Aaron Lambert perfects his french horn technique during band class.

Danielle Coffey keeps air going through her horn, so it won't freeze up before the concert.

David McCormick practice his tuba often. He was the only tuba player this year.

Brandy Presnell and Leigh Ann Staton wait patiently until performance time at Enderly.

Jeremy Garrett and Robby Beard practice during the third period concert band class.

COLLEGES & CAREERS

A Reality For Us All

Juniors Brian Marlatt, Matt Barger, Brian Sizemore and Kevin Pryor "check out" the prospects of attending UVA on PMHS College Day.

National Honor Society member, Josh Hamilton, introduces speakers from Stonewall Jackson Hospital for Health Careers on Career Day.

COLLEGE DAY

On September 28, the guidance department and Southern Virginia College for Women sponsored College Day for juniors and seniors. College Day gave these students the opportunity to receive information about many colleges from not only Virginia but many other states as well. ETSU, JMU, UVA, and Radford were just a few of the colleges that participated.

Georgia-Pacific's representatives discussed the challenges and opportunities of employment with PMHS students.

Jeff Zangari, Michael Decker and David E. Coleman listen intently to one of their three presentations on Career Day.

On February 25, another informative event, Career Day, was held. Career Day is held every other year for all students. Area factories along with all branches of the U.S. Armed Forces sent representatives/speakers. Other options were apprenticeship programs, carpentry/roofing, banking, church-related, education, engineering, law enforcement, and health careers.

Renaissance

John Roberts hugs a favorite teacher, Mrs. Hawkins, after receiving Renaissance gifts.

The Renaissance Program recognizes students for academic accomplishments and regular attendance. The students are rewarded with tee-shirts, free period/free homework coupons and discounts from local businesses. By offering rewards or bonds, students are encouraged to improve grades and attend school regularly. The Business-School-Alumni Partnerships foster support for academics at P.M.H.S.

"Can't Help Falling In Love"

"Set The Night To Magic"

Dawn Campbell's "Yosamighty" Fighting Blue mascot highlights the junior hall during spirit week. All classes participated in the traditional hall decorating competition.

Mrs. Teague displays her spirit by collecting tickets for the Big Game!

Flower girl, Taryn Mohler, and Crown bearer, Justin Wilmore, look excited to be in the spotlight.

Richie Moore receives a pass from fellow junior, Brian Sizemore during the Bath County game. The team finished with a 28-0 victory over the Chargers, for the Homecoming fans.

Our spirited pirate (Shelly Reid) takes care of criminals Mandy Fitzgerald and Jennifer Barger before the game.

The Homecoming representatives are presented to the students at the annual pep rally during sixth period.

As the theme suggested, the Homecoming dance was full of magic. As a matter of fact, the entire week, with spirit days, a pep rally, the parade, and of course, the game and dance, was magical.

At halftime, the Homecoming Court entered the field. The court consisted of freshmen, Chip Coleman and Jennifer Bayly; sophomores Nathan Floyd and Elizabeth Martyn; juniors Brian Marlatt and Sarah Beth Tomlinson; and seniors Stacey Coleman and Greg Cash, Angela Shumate and John Roberts, Dana Fox and Nathan Baker, and Queen Carrie Coleman and Scott Deyo.

With the extra touch of a victory over Bath County, Homecoming week was considered a great success.

The Marching Blues march proudly onto the field to generate some excitement during half-time.

Mrs. Floyd and Mrs. Mutispaugh prove that even though they are adults, they still get the urge to "strut their stuff" every now and then!

Misty Wilhelm and J.D. Wheeler take a break from the action and catch a moment to witness the excitement surrounding them.

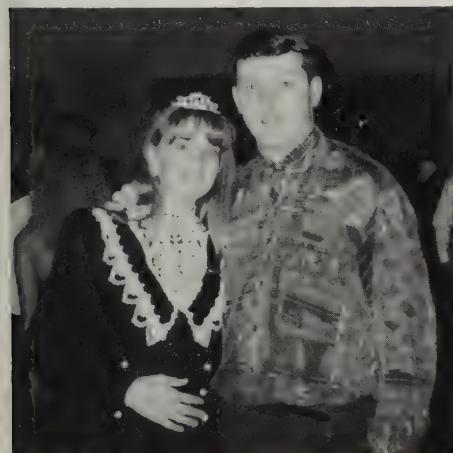

Stephanie Tomlinson and Craig Lawhorne look exhausted after a night of dancing.

Michael Ramsey and date, Amy Woolston, smile and admit that they are having a good time.

Monica Stinnett makes sure she is not lost in the crowd.

Cersha Marshburn, Emily Burch, and Amy Slagle look ready to go.

Joey Bates and John Roberts prove they haven't changed in four years!

A PERFECT PROM

Poem To The Seniors

Another year goes passing by

Another Prom is here

To some this brings a joyous smile

To others, brings a tear.

For four years you have tread a path

From dawn to setting sun.

But now the path gets steeper

And the climb is just begun.

We're very glad to know you.

We'll miss you when you've gone.

To the Class of '94

We dedicate our prom.

The 1994 Parry McCluer Junior-Senior Prom was held June 4 at 8:00 p.m. at Southern Virginia College for Women. The Prom was sponsored by the Junior Class under the direction of Head Junior Class Sponsor, Mrs. Winnie Carr. Everyone on the Junior Prom Committee worked hard to make "The Perfect Prom." The theme was, "Make It Last Forever" with the song being "Just You and I". The color scheme was in gold and teal. The D.J. that provided the music for the evening was Eric Northcraft from Richmond, VA. All who went had a wonderful time. It was a very memorable night for the graduating Seniors.

The Juniors

THANK YOU

The 1993-1994 Parrimac Staff would like to thank all of the businesses and patrons who supported Parry McCluer High School by purchasing an ad in this yearbook. We encourage the students and parents of Parry McCluer to support these patrons throughout our community. Your support is greatly appreciated by the students of P.M.H.S., since ad sales make the Parrimac affordable to most students.

Sincerely,
'93-'94 PARRIMAC STAFF
